

Thomas Clark is on the Island.

James has gone to Maui for the night. See his ad.

Fisher has a number of good plots for sale. See his ad.

Thompson and family have moved to this issue.

Lodge No. 21, F. and A. M., are meeting for work in the third story of the building.

Williams, the photographer, has a specialty of children's pictures. See today.

Wilson, charged with heedlessness, will appear for trial in police court this morning.

Nearly furnished rooms for rent, on Vineyard street, and the rent is low.

Dr. Bolo was among the promoters for Hawaii, and will be there in Kona.

Today James F. Morgan took his saleroom an assortment of furniture and trimmings from the estate of a deceased gentleman.

Indemnity charge against E. H. Fisher, preferred by King Brothers, was granted yesterday in the police court.

News of the Oceanic Gas and Electric company are now in the new building on Merchant street.

Adams's case in the police court was taken up today. He is charged with violating the Board of Health regulations.

Wong and Young Sai were fined $5 each in the police court for having opium in their possession unlawfully.

At a sale of jewelry, fine ladies' wearing apparel and other valuables, will be sold at Fisher's saleroom, at noon, in public auction.

Rooms formerly occupied by Mrs. Fisher for rent, furnished. State the premises; rent reasonable. See Fisher for particulars.

Notice which has been thrown on the pavement sidewalks around the saleroom remain seven days, and no notice, before being removed.

Special license, special Importation of goods. In order to sell at S. & S. Bachs Company will allow days only, at 15 cents per piece.

Will of William Haywood, late of Hawaii, W. H. Fisher will sell at auction, at his saleroom, all the effects of W. H. Inman, deceased.

Lodge No. 1394 of the Commercial Union of America, has removed from the Y. M. C. A. to Harmony hall. It will meet every Tuesday.

Decided to keep the Capitol in contact as they are, and no short cut walk from the Richards and King streets is suggested.

Fisher has to let a fine cot on the beach. This cot is fully furnished, and rents for a stable and bathroom of course. First come, first served.

Some property owners have no sense yet to make to the Government the street extension. They are holding out for various reasons not ready to make common.

Association annual banquet place Friday evening at the Hawaiian Hotel. W. C. W. Hankey, J. M. Monsarras, chairman are in charge of the event.

Wilson, charged with larceny and drugs, appeared for trial in the court yesterday morning. Sentence was granted until Friday. He is charged with stealing $200.

News of George Harbottle and Kinakua, charged with the bottles of samuahu from the Kinakua, was continued until when the Kinakua's freight bill is sent to testify.

Residents are again up in arms in condition in which the residents have left the street yesterday covered the entire with a thick cloud of fine dust, mostly from the sewers.

After the postoffice agent, having moved from the base of the Capitol to the old government next to the postoffice on the street. Assistant Superintendent Public Works will move into quarters in the Capitol.

Confess, Superintendent of the auction is offering the sale of lot No. 80 of the city for thirty years. An up of this per annum is asked for the land. The auction will take place this afternoon.

Death of the wife of William was held yesterday. The deceased about 75 years of age and in the German colony. The doctor stated that he had the friends who have lived with his wife's illness, and called on the German Consul, Mr. von.

Business is anxious to be given a beer and beer license for the work and is securing signatures of residents in the vicinity of the friends against assistance by Judge Humphreys that the license will not be given to the property owners.

Samuel, son of Attorney V. Smith, on Saturday last from the Florence, Italy, via Genoa and Rome. Mr. Smith for months or more in Florence, Italy, and will be in the city, remaining another six months. He will be absent for some months longer.

Funeral of a Cemetery Association. It is the annual meeting yesterday of the officers who were named for incorporation with the city. They were: W. C. W. Hankey, M. A. Gonsalves, Treasurer. The officers of the $100,000 authorized is paid up.

News on King Street.

Driven by a middle aged Chinese on King street shortly yesterday. The bridle broke and was unable to control the animal. It looked as if it would sweep the street of vehicles. It narrowly missed it, but near the corner it stumbled and fell. The Chinese driver out. It fell over the right eye of a man named. The driver was injured.

At a sale of jewelry, fine ladies' wearing apparel and other valuables, will be sold at Fisher's saleroom, at noon, in public auction.

Rooms formerly occupied by Mrs. Fisher for rent, furnished. State the premises; rent reasonable. See Fisher for particulars.

Notice which has been thrown on the pavement sidewalks around the saleroom remain seven days, and no notice, before being removed.

Special license, special Importation of goods. In order to sell at S. & S. Bachs Company will allow days only, at 15 cents per piece.

Will of William Haywood, late of Hawaii, W. H. Fisher will sell at auction, at his saleroom, all the effects of W. H. Inman, deceased.

Lodge No. 1394 of the Commercial Union of America, has removed from the Y. M. C. A. to Harmony hall. It will meet every Tuesday.

Decided to keep the Capitol in contact as they are, and no short cut walk from the Richards and King streets is suggested.

Fisher has to let a fine cot on the beach. This cot is fully furnished, and rents for a stable and bathroom of course. First come, first served.

Some property owners have no sense yet to make to the Government the street extension. They are holding out for various reasons not ready to make common.

Association annual banquet place Friday evening at the Hawaiian Hotel. W. C. W. Hankey, J. M. Monsarras, chairman are in charge of the event.

Wilson, charged with larceny and drugs, appeared for trial in the court yesterday morning. Sentence was granted until Friday. He is charged with stealing $200.

News of George Harbottle and Kinakua, charged with the bottles of samuahu from the Kinakua, was continued until when the Kinakua's freight bill is sent to testify.

Residents are again up in arms in condition in which the residents have left the street yesterday covered the entire with a thick cloud of fine dust, mostly from the sewers.

After the postoffice agent, having moved from the base of the Capitol to the old government next to the postoffice on the street. Assistant Superintendent Public Works will move into quarters in the Capitol.

Confess, Superintendent of the auction is offering the sale of lot No. 80 of the city for thirty years. An up of this per annum is asked for the land. The auction will take place this afternoon.

Death of the wife of William was held yesterday. The deceased about 75 years of age and in the German colony. The doctor stated that he had the friends who have lived with his wife's illness, and called on the German Consul, Mr. von.

Business is anxious to be given a beer and beer license for the work and is securing signatures of residents in the vicinity of the friends against assistance by Judge Humphreys that the license will not be given to the property owners.

Samuel, son of Attorney V. Smith, on Saturday last from the Florence, Italy, via Genoa and Rome. Mr. Smith for months or more in Florence, Italy, and will be in the city, remaining another six months. He will be absent for some months longer.

Funeral of a Cemetery Association. It is the annual meeting yesterday of the officers who were named for incorporation with the city. They were: W. C. W. Hankey, M. A. Gonsalves, Treasurer. The officers of the $100,000 authorized is paid up.

News on King Street.

Driven by a middle aged Chinese on King street shortly yesterday. The bridle broke and was unable to control the animal. It looked as if it would sweep the street of vehicles. It narrowly missed it, but near the corner it stumbled and fell. The Chinese driver out. It fell over the right eye of a man named. The driver was injured.

At a sale of jewelry, fine ladies' wearing apparel and other valuables, will be sold at Fisher's saleroom, at noon, in public auction.

Rooms formerly occupied by Mrs. Fisher for rent, furnished. State the premises; rent reasonable. See Fisher for particulars.

Notice which has been thrown on the pavement sidewalks around the saleroom remain seven days, and no notice, before being removed.

Special license, special Importation of goods. In order to sell at S. & S. Bachs Company will allow days only, at 15 cents per piece.

Will of William Haywood, late of Hawaii, W. H. Fisher will sell at auction, at his saleroom, all the effects of W. H. Inman, deceased.

Lodge No. 1394 of the Commercial Union of America, has removed from the Y. M. C. A. to Harmony hall. It will meet every Tuesday.

Decided to keep the Capitol in contact as they are, and no short cut walk from the Richards and King streets is suggested.

Fisher has to let a fine cot on the beach. This cot is fully furnished, and rents for a stable and bathroom of course. First come, first served.

Some property owners have no sense yet to make to the Government the street extension. They are holding out for various reasons not ready to make common.

Association annual banquet place Friday evening at the Hawaiian Hotel. W. C. W. Hankey, J. M. Monsarras, chairman are in charge of the event.

Wilson, charged with larceny and drugs, appeared for trial in the court yesterday morning. Sentence was granted until Friday. He is charged with stealing $200.

News of George Harbottle and Kinakua, charged with the bottles of samuahu from the Kinakua, was continued until when the Kinakua's freight bill is sent to testify.

Residents are again up in arms in condition in which the residents have left the street yesterday covered the entire with a thick cloud of fine dust, mostly from the sewers.

After the postoffice agent, having moved from the base of the Capitol to the old government next to the postoffice on the street. Assistant Superintendent Public Works will move into quarters in the Capitol.

Confess, Superintendent of the auction is offering the sale of lot No. 80 of the city for thirty years. An up of this per annum is asked for the land. The auction will take place this afternoon.

Death of the wife of William was held yesterday. The deceased about 75 years of age and in the German colony. The doctor stated that he had the friends who have lived with his wife's illness, and called on the German Consul, Mr. von.

Business is anxious to be given a beer and beer license for the work and is securing signatures of residents in the vicinity of the friends against assistance by Judge Humphreys that the license will not be given to the property owners.

Samuel, son of Attorney V. Smith, on Saturday last from the Florence, Italy, via Genoa and Rome. Mr. Smith for months or more in Florence, Italy, and will be in the city, remaining another six months. He will be absent for some months longer.

Funeral of a Cemetery Association. It is the annual meeting yesterday of the officers who were named for incorporation with the city. They were: W. C. W. Hankey, M. A. Gonsalves, Treasurer. The officers of the $100,000 authorized is paid up.

News on King Street.

Driven by a middle aged Chinese on King street shortly yesterday. The bridle broke and was unable to control the animal. It looked as if it would sweep the street of vehicles. It narrowly missed it, but near the corner it stumbled and fell. The Chinese driver out. It fell over the right eye of a man named. The driver was injured.

At a sale of jewelry, fine ladies' wearing apparel and other valuables, will be sold at Fisher's saleroom, at noon, in public auction.

Rooms formerly occupied by Mrs. Fisher for rent, furnished. State the premises; rent reasonable. See Fisher for particulars.

Notice which has been thrown on the pavement sidewalks around the saleroom remain seven days, and no notice, before being removed.

Special license, special Importation of goods. In order to sell at S. & S. Bachs Company will allow days only, at 15 cents per piece.

Will of William Haywood, late of Hawaii, W. H. Fisher will sell at auction, at his saleroom, all the effects of W. H. Inman, deceased.

Lodge No. 1394 of the Commercial Union of America, has removed from the Y. M. C. A. to Harmony hall. It will meet every Tuesday.

Decided to keep the Capitol in contact as they are, and no short cut walk from the Richards and King streets is suggested.

Fisher has to let a fine cot on the beach. This cot is fully furnished, and rents for a stable and bathroom of course. First come, first served.

Some property owners have no sense yet to make to the Government the street extension. They are holding out for various reasons not ready to make common.

Association annual banquet place Friday evening at the Hawaiian Hotel. W. C. W. Hankey, J. M. Monsarras, chairman are in charge of the event.

Wilson, charged with larceny and drugs, appeared for trial in the court yesterday morning. Sentence was granted until Friday. He is charged with stealing $200.

News of George Harbottle and Kinakua, charged with the bottles of samuahu from the Kinakua, was continued until when the Kinakua's freight bill is sent to testify.

Residents are again up in arms in condition in which the residents have left the street yesterday covered the entire with a thick cloud of fine dust, mostly from the sewers.

After the postoffice agent, having moved from the base of the Capitol to the old government next to the postoffice on the street. Assistant Superintendent Public Works will move into quarters in the Capitol.

Confess, Superintendent of the auction is offering the sale of lot No. 80 of the city for thirty years. An up of this per annum is asked for the land. The auction will take place this afternoon.

Death of the wife of William was held yesterday. The deceased about 75 years of age and in the German colony. The doctor stated that he had the friends who have lived with his wife's illness, and called on the German Consul, Mr. von.

Business is anxious to be given a beer and beer license for the work and is securing signatures of residents in the vicinity of the friends against assistance by Judge Humphreys that the license will not be given to the property owners.

Samuel, son of Attorney V. Smith, on Saturday last from the Florence, Italy, via Genoa and Rome. Mr. Smith for months or more in Florence, Italy, and will be in the city, remaining another six months. He will be absent for some months longer.

Funeral of a Cemetery Association. It is the annual meeting yesterday of the officers who were named for incorporation with the city. They were: W. C. W. Hankey, M. A. Gonsalves, Treasurer. The officers of the $100,000 authorized is paid up.

News on King Street.

Driven by a middle aged Chinese on King street shortly yesterday. The bridle broke and was unable to control the animal. It looked as if it would sweep the street of vehicles. It narrowly missed it, but near the corner it stumbled and fell. The Chinese driver out. It fell over the right eye of a man named. The driver was injured.

At a sale of jewelry, fine ladies' wearing apparel and other valuables, will be sold at Fisher's saleroom, at noon, in public auction.

Rooms formerly occupied by Mrs. Fisher for rent, furnished. State the premises; rent reasonable. See Fisher for particulars.

Notice which has been thrown on the pavement sidewalks around the saleroom remain seven days, and no notice, before being removed.

Special license, special Importation of goods. In order to sell at S. & S. Bachs Company will allow days only, at 15 cents per piece.

Will of William Haywood, late of Hawaii, W. H. Fisher will sell at auction, at his saleroom, all the effects of W. H. Inman, deceased.

Lodge No. 1394 of the Commercial Union of America, has removed from the Y. M.

All letters should be sent to above dress.

BREWER BLOCK. FORT ST

Hobron Drug Co.
Fort and King.

FORT STREET

We have made a display of these rugs in our large central show window, where their beautiful designs and harmonious colorings are sure to attract attention.

Coyne-Mehrten Furniture Co.